Patty's Ponderings

In one of my favourite DVD series, Rain Shadow, an Australian female vet moves from the city to serve a rural community. She has vehicle mishaps and sticks her foot in her mouth but falls in love with the landscape and the farm families she serves. She grows into her role as the drought stricken community struggles to find alternative agricultural solutions to survive climate change.

This is a familiar and compelling scenario for me, a city slicker new to a rural community with her vehicular mishaps and foot in mouth disease. And I also have fallen in love with our valley landscape and church families. I feel like I am growing into my role as OMC pastor and hope to continue to serve here as we all find creative ways to follow Christ and form community in the midst of rapid cultural changes.

Patty's Picks - It's been a great summer for reading and watching! Please submit your own recommendations to oslermcoffice@sasktel.net.

Birds Without Wings by Louis Bernier takes us into the exotic Ottoman Empire. Smoke Gets In Your Eyes by Caitlin Doughty is a humorous memoir of a crematorium.

11 by Paul Hanley is an important read on climate change from a smart local author.

Every Bite Affects the World by Catherine Verrall is also an important book from a Saskatchewan author.

Wearing God by Lauren Winner is an interesting biblical look at God.

H is for Hawk by Helen Macdonald is a wonderful falconer memoir.

Martin Marten by Brian Doyle is a creative weave of human and animal stories. The Last Bookaneer is a fun novel about book sellers.

The Imitation Game DVD is as amazing as everyone says.

Selma DVD is as important as everyone says.

When Calls the Heart DVD is as romantic as everyone says.

Red Army DVD is a fascinating documentary on the world famous hockey team. Mr. Turner DVD and Call the Midwife Season 4 DVD - both for British drama fans. DCI Banks DVD is for British mystery fans. Outlander DVD is for British fantasy fans - in the vein of Vikings and Game of Thrones. Top Gear DVD is for British comedy fans.

Humour ~ The Isaac Section

Even More Things I Have Never Done Before Working in Osler
by Patty Friesen

1. Did a country wave with one hand while drinking out of a water bottle with the other hand.
2. Led a worship service in the dark.
3. Led a worship service in a barn.
4. Stopped a mother cat from jumping on the communion table.

As long as there is algebra, there will be prayer in school.

During his children's sermon, the pastor asked the kids, "What is gray, has a bushy tail and gathers nuts in the fall?"

One five-year old raised his hand. "I know the answer should be Jesus," he began, "but it sounds like a squirrel to me."

Gandhi walked barefoot everywhere, ate very little, and often fasted, leaving him thin and with very bad breath. Thus he is often thought of as a super callused, fragile mystic plagued with halitosis.

✿ Pieces of Peace ✿

Give me the money that has been spent in war and I will clothe every man, woman, and child in an attire of which kings and queens will be proud. I will build a schoolhouse in every valley over the whole earth. I will crown every hillside with a place of worship consecrated to peace.

US Senator from Massachusetts

An Ode to a Milk Cow
By Patty Friesen

Eva: Harry, it's time to sell the dairy.

Harry: Eva, my little heifer, I don't know how we can sell the cows,
To sell the gals who have been such pals.

Eva: We have to face the marketplace
And finally sell the dairy, Harry.
But don't cry – they've been dry
And there are flies in their eyes
And lumps on their rumps the size of humps!

Harry: Now, now, there is no need for a row over our lovely milk cows.

I made them a vow in the haymow to always endow
Their milk as smooth as silk
And bring no harm to this dairy farm.

Eva: Oh, how you do prattle about the cattle, but can't you see my nerves are in a rattle. I know it has been my fate to be your helpful milking mate but I would be a liar if I said I didn't want to retire.

Harry: Oh my lands – what would we do with so much time on our hands?
Every morning and night, milking has been our plight.
And it wouldn't be right, from the cows to take flight.
How I wish with all my might, that they would forever be my delight
For how I love my Milky Whites.

Eva: Holy cow, Harry – it's the dairy or me. Can't you see? This is the way it has to be. Freedom from cows is the key.

Harry: Well, Eva – I tell you the score, as much as I love cows, I love you more – so we'll sell the bossies and hope for the best, and look forward to retirement and a nice long rest.

Sing: Farmer Martens had a farm.

A Story of Love

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son....” John 3:16

gather round
I have a story to tell
of one who reached inside himself
and took a handful of love
like a pile of stardust
and said: this is for you
it is all you need
it is all you will ever need
there is enough here
to change the whole world
take it

many laughed at him
mocked him
and ignored the invitation

but some dared to take it
and those who did
noticed something about this love
they found they could do what the gift-giver could do
they could stand with the lost
welcome the traveler
eat with the hungry
they found themselves doing what the man first did to them
give something of themselves to others
they became like the man
offering themselves
and as they offered themselves
others took the invitation
and many still do
and many still trust
it is enough to change the whole world
